DOCKETED BY GB

In the matter of an individual,

Respondent.

DOCKET NO. S-21010A-17-0096

DECISION NO. 76197

ORDER OF REVOCATION

On April 5, 2017, the Securities Division ("Division") of the Arizona Corporation Commission ("Commission") filed a Notice of Opportunity for Hearing Regarding Proposed Order of Revocation (the "Notice") against Respondent Lawrence M. LaBine.

On April 29, 2017, the Division served a copy of the Notice upon LaBine via certified mail. The deadlines for LaBine to request a hearing and file an answer to the Notice have passed and LaBine has not filed a request for a hearing or answer to the Notice as of June 23, 2017.

I.

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. LaBine has been registered with the Commission as a securities salesman since February 1986, and licensed as an investment adviser representative since December 2002, with the exception of when he was transferring employment between firms.

2. On July 8, 2014, the Securities and Exchange Commission instituted proceedings against LaBine for violations of the Securities Act of 1933, the Securities Exchange Act of 1940, the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, and the Investment Company Act of 1940.

3. In August and September 2015, the SEC held a seven-day administrative hearing for LaBine.

1 4. On March 2, 2016, the Securities and Exchange Commission released a Redacted
2 (Public) Initial Decision against LaBine.

3 5. In the Legal Conclusions section of the Initial Decision, the SEC found that LaBine
4 employed a scheme to defraud clients and made several material misrepresentations and omissions
5 in connection with selling his clients debentures in a software company, including the following:

- 6 • LaBine failed to disclose a material conflict of interest to his clients, namely that he could 7 receive warrants in the company as extra incentive compensation from selling the debentures.
- 8 • LaBine failed to disclose to his clients that he had made significant fundraising commitments 9 to the company's board, which also created a material conflict of interest.
- 10 • LaBine failed to disclose a third, material conflict of interest to his clients, namely that he 11 was the company's primary fundraiser.
- 12 • LaBine did not disclose numerous risk factors indicating a high chance of the investment's 13 failure.

14 The SEC held that these material misrepresentations and omissions along with the scheme to sell
15 debentures to his clients in order to make good LaBine's fund-raising commitments to a company in 16 which he could potentially own warrants violated the antifraud provisions of the Securities Act of 17 1933, Section 17(a), Securities Exchange Act of 1940, Section 10(b) and Rule 10b-5, and Investment
18 Advisers Act, Section 206(1) and (2).

19 6. In the Initial Decision, the SEC barred LaBine from association with any investment
20 adviser, broker, or dealer, with a right to reapply for association in two years.

21 7. On April 22, 2016, the SEC entered a Notice that Initial Decision has Become Final.
22 This Notice makes the findings and orders against LaBine in the Initial Decision effective, including 23 the two-year bar from association with any investment adviser, broker, or dealer.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. The Commission has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to Article XV of the Arizona Constitution, the Securities Act and the Investment Management Act.

2. LaBine’s conduct is grounds to revoke his registration as a securities salesman with the Commission pursuant to A.R.S. § 44-1962(A)(8). Specifically, LaBine is subject to an order of the SEC denying, suspending or revoking membership or registration as a broker or dealer in securities or an investment adviser or investment adviser representative for at least six months.

3. LaBine’s conduct is grounds to revoke his license as an investment adviser representative with the Commission pursuant to A.R.S. § 44-3201(A)(10). Specifically, LaBine is subject to an order of the SEC denying, revoking or suspending membership, licensure or registration as a broker or dealer in securities or as an investment adviser or investment adviser representative for at least six months and revocation of LaBine’s license would be in the public interest.

III.

ORDER

THEREFORE, on the basis of the Findings of Fact, and Conclusions of Law, the Commission finds that the following relief is appropriate, in the public interest, and necessary for the protection of investors:

IT IS ORDERED, pursuant to A.R.S. § 44-1962(A)(8), that LaBine’s registration as a securities salesman is revoked.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, pursuant to A.R.S. § 44-3201(A)(10), that LaBine’s license as an investment adviser representative is revoked.
